

1 jurisdictions, it is really just a matter of the Com-
2 mission reflecting its own desire on and whether they 3 make a final determination of these questions, the 4 Commission at the meeting, it won't be as important to 5 indicate what direction the Committee is moving in.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: I think that is very important
7 and actually we will use that as a guide insofar as try-8 ing to accomplish this schedule. We may boil it down to 9 that.

10 Now, Ridge, you started all this by asking a 11 question.

12 MR. MELVIN: I think John Brooks has stated
13 my feeling much better than I tried to do, because as I
14 look at these questions I see only two broad policy ques-
15 tions that we are in a position to present to the full
16 Commission, the first one being what political subdivisions
17 should be used and under what unit of local government,
18 and the second question of home rule, whether or not it 19 should be mandatory; and on both of them, particularly the 20 one on home rule, it seems to me we should submit with 21 the question supporting data, studies and so on with our
