2 necessary. It would be some time, unfortunately, before
3 that could be accomplished and we would be in a position
4 to do what you are suggesting. Because of that, I think 5 we've got to compromise a little bit and we've got to 6 go ahead and submit the questions as I proposed and then 7 if Mr. Eney comes back and says, well, now, having looked 8 over these questions, there are certain matters here
9 which I think we are ready to go ahead and submit to the 10 Commission as a whole, then he may give us some direction 11 as to what he wants us to go ahead and do, similar to 12 what John has just outlined here.

13 However, I am going to leave that a little bit 14 up to him, rather than my undertaking to decide it or,

16 keep driving in order to get anywhere or we can very 17 easily get ourselves bogged down in the mass of factors
18 to be considered and I want to avoid that by keeping 19 moving rapidly enough so we don't get bogged down.

20 So, although frankly I might agree personally
21 with what you are suggesting here, I am still going to
