

1 government, from the work he has done on it. I think,
2 true, we might not be able to get them into a Committee
3 meeting, whereas they would be available if we'd get 4 these matters before the Commission as a whole.

5 MR. BROOKS: It serves a dual purpose. You
6 let the Commission know where we are going and get their 7 reaction. At the same time, I don't think you will get 8 the Commission taking a vote or any action on this at the 9 next meeting. Even at the next meeting, I think they 10 will be unable to handle the matter, even if a formal 11 question is posed.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: And they will be bouncing it
13 back to us.

14 MR. BROOKS: And I don't think, if they should 15 make a decision, it would be any more than a tentative
16 decision such as has been made on the convention pro-
17 cedure reports.

18 MR. MELVIN: John, do you feel then we should-19 submit these detailed questions just like this to the 20 Commission?

21 MR. BROOKS: I think we will boil down the
