

1 substance of the first two questions that could be asked
2 to the Commission and perhaps indicate to them the trend
3 of thought of the Committee, to see if there are any 4 comments they wish to make on them and not necessarily 5 push, that they have to make any decision, but perhaps 6 there will be some comments from the Commission that would 7 be of value to take note of. In a way, it will indicate 8 the position of the various Commission members which might 9 be helpful to the Committee in formulating its recommenda-
10 tions.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: And then, too, don't forget
12 that we've always got to keep prodding the material and 13 the persons who are members of this Committee who haven't 14 shown up at these meetings and, if we relaxed on the 15 issues in any way, we would be limiting the scope of our 16 consideration in a way that I don't think we can. So, I
17 think we've got to keep on this course.

18 MR. BROOKS: Another thought would be to maybe 19 also just circulate the general information, a list of 20 questions such as this, just to indicate the magnitude of 21 what the Committee is doing. In other words, not propose
