

1 Her comment on a matter of policy in our
2 efforts to reduce the number of governments and strengthen 3 state-local relations, we should be careful not to allow 4 a proliferation of single function special districts,
5 characteristic of areas like New York and Chicago, where 6 you find 1,000 governments of one type or another.

7 In Maryland as elsewhere, she goes on to say,
8 there are numerous instances within the State of function-
9 al cooperation transcending the city or an individual 10 county. We should note the pamphlet published by the 11 Maryland State Department of Health where we now observe
12 a metropolitan attack being made on the question of air
13 pollution. It is being jointly supported by written 14 agreement between Anne Arundel County, Baltimore County,
15 and Baltimore City. It was made possible in June 1965,
16 by a first year grant of $225,000 from the United States
17 Public Health Service.

18 Under the existing agreement, this function
19 will continue for three years.

20 She asks a question whether we could get
