

1 of persons who could share with this Committee various 2 points of view as to expectations and future growth. In 3 particular, it was recommended that Professor Jim Pollack
4 of the University of Michigan, who was also an assistant
5 in the constitutional convention in Michigan, and he 6 specializes in municipal government from an academic 7 standpoint; and my thought was if we could bring him in 8 to participate in any kind of panel, it might be also 9 desirable to have him come at a time when he might talk
10 to the whole Commission about his experience in the 11 Michigan convention.

12 Another thought would be of the possibility, 13 if it is a possibility, of planning a larger panel the 14 succeeding day, on a Tuesday, instead of meeting on 15 Monday.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: You mean meet Tuesday morning
17 instead of Monday morning?

18 DR. LOEVY: That's the 22nd.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: George Washington's birthday.
20 I would like to be able to hold to the Monday meeting.
21 I think, actually, the demands on the time of Committee
