

1 MR. SCHLITZ: Is it anticipated People's
2 Court judges can serve in the Circuit Court?

3 MR. MARTINEAU: Why?

4 MR. SCHLITZ: Why not make this a division of 5 the Circuit Court?

6 MR. MARTINEAU: When you talk about procedures,
7 one of the purposes in having a court by a different
8 title and different names, you will have completely 9 different procedures, much less formal, without a lot of 10 the formalities that go into a Circuit Court proceeding, 11 and we felt that the way to achieve this would be to have 12 a separate court rather than trying to establish this 13 by merely a division of the Circuit Court in which you 14 would have to have, wherever you are talking about the 15 Circuit Court, make an exception for the division of the 16 Circuit Court that handles cases only involving so much 17 money.

18 JUDGE FAIRBANKS: I don't think Mr. Schlitz,
19 that you are going to save yourself anything on adminis-
20 tration by just making it a division of the Circuit Court.
21 You will still have to have the same number of people
