

1 spot boss, so to speak, in the county. Take our county
2 again. I hate to keep referring to it. It is the only
3 one I know about. We now have eight Circuit Court
4 judges, Lord help us. We have got three People's Court
5 judges, and they are talking about giving us a fourth.
6 There are twelve judges. Somebody has got to be the 7 boss. What are you going to do?

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Under this setup, the chief 9 judge of the Circuit Court for the State would be at the 10 top, and he would have various assistants, one of whom 11 could be the senior judge in our county, for example.

12 MR. ENEY: Or an administrative officer.

13 JUDGE FAIRBANKS: We argued this before the 14 Case Commission when I appeared before them, and we 15 recommended that the administrative person be a judicial 16 officer. The Case Commission, I believe, recommended an 17 administrative officer. I don't think it makes a lot of 18 difference as long as you have got somebody who is sub-
19 ject to the control of the Judiciary who is responsible 20 for the administration.

21 MR. ENEY: The concept I was trying to get
