

1        your reaction to is that one bossman for the appellate
2        courts, one bossman for the trial courts.

3                JUDGE FAIRBANKS: This is statewide?

4                MR. ENEY: Yes.

5                JUDGE CURLEY: On the appointment of these 6        Commissioners or Committee magistrates, actually the 7        judges who are going to use them are going to be the 8        People's Court judges, if the senior resident Circuit
9        Court judge appoints these people, but if we are unhappy
10       with, say, a different Committee magistrate who just isn't 11       doing the job, we are going to have to prevail upon that 12       senior resident Circuit Court judge to remove him.

13               THE CHAIRMAN: That is right. That is why I 14       asked how you judges felt about it particularly. We 15       don't have any strong feeling about it among the Committee.

16               JUDGE CURLEY: In our county, we have had 17       about a year and a half experience with it, and in one or 18       two situations we were not, let's say we were less than 19       happy with the performance, but we had no power to remove 20       them. That is, I had no power to remove them because 21       they were appointed by the governor. I think it is good
