

1 over the entire operation of the judicial system. We 2 drafted it this way so that in the future, by rule of 3 court, provisions can be made for setting up various 4 administrative offices in some of the larger counties and 5 Baltimore County where needed; if you need a local judge,
6 who has to be the man on the spot, to be the administra-
7 tive head, that can be provided for. We are trying to 8 make this as flexible as possible so that all of these 9 problems can be met when they arise.

10 JUDGE FAIREBANKS: We have got even a little 11 away from what I referred to in the first instance, and 12 that is the Commissioners or Committee magistrates ought 13 to be subject to the control of the Judiciary, and where 14 it is in the hierarchy really doesn't make too much dif-
15 ference.

16 MR. ROBOWSKY: It is appointment at the pleasure
17 of the senior resident judge. It is tremendous control.

18 MR. MARTINEAU: We put that in only because in 19 the beginning, at least perhaps for some time, we may 20 have a number of counties that don't have a People's 21 Court judge, and we will have a Circuit Court judge in
