

1 JUDGE BRUNE: From what I understand under your
2 proposal.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Judge Niles can tell us pre-
4 cisely how it is done.

5 JUDGE PROCTOR: Doesn't Judge Reardon sit for-
6 ever?

7 JUDGE NILES: Yes. He is not only my friend.
8 He is a friend of a lot of persons present here. He 9 was, he is not now, he is down on the Supreme Court of 10 Massachusetts.

11 JUDGE BRUNE: Supreme Justice Court it is called
12 t here.

13 JUDGE NILES: That is right. That is as 14 clumsy a title as Supreme Court of Appeals, I think.

15 JUDGE BRUNE: Slightly redundant, but go ahead.

16 JUDGE NILES: He has all the powers of an
17 associate judge. He has all of the administrative powers
18 that Judge Brune was mentioning. I talked to him at 19 some length about what he actually did. He said he 20 spends about two-thirds of his time in his administrative
21 duties. He spends the other third of his time in the trial
