

1 Court of Appeals by assigning a judge to the People's 2 Court or the General Trial Court on a particular case?

3 JUDGE NILES: Mr. Chairman, would this problem
4 be solved by putting in the usual provisions, subject
5 to such rules as may be adopted by the Supreme Court or 6 subject to law? That is, to say, that the Legislature
7 could say you couldn't put a judge of the present Court
8 of Appeals into the People's Court or you couldn't put 9 a judge of the People's Court into the Court of Appeals.
10 That is, work it out by statute rather than by constitu-
11 tion?

12 THE CHAIRMAN: That would be one possibility.
13 As I said, the fact that we don't make any affirmative 14 comment about any of the suggestions doesn't necessarily 15 mean that we may not adopt them or contrarywise, we may 16 not consider them wise.

17 Let's go to the rulemaking power.

18 MR. ENEY: Could we come back to this a moment?
19 I would like to clarify one thing. Judge Prendergast, 20 would you feel that the limitation on the assignment of 21 judges should only be such as to have the People's Court
