

1 in the Legislature than I do in putting it in the
2 chief justice.

3 JUDGE PROCTOR: I would think he would exer-
4 cise his power as the millennium arises, and you do raise
5 the caliber of your courts of limited jurisdiction through-
6 out the State.

7 MR. ENEY: I think that was the point behind
8 this paragraph, that you would have it there, and you
9 would avoid the situation of sort of categorizing the 10 People's Court judges as a breed apart.

11 MRS. STRAUS: May I ask one question that 12 really is out of context? We have so far gone through 13 the majority of your proposals here. I am wondering if
14 you anticipate that somewhere else in the Constitution
15 there will be a specific guarantee to the individual the 16 right of appeal?

17 MR. ENEY: Right of appeal to where?

18 MRS. STRAUS: Within the judicial system.

19 MR. ENEY: There is no such guarantee now.
20 It is entirely a matter of statute by the Legislature.

21 MRS. STRAUS: Do you feel there should be such
