

1 provision, but limited only to appellate judges. Am I
2 right on that?

3 JUDGE CARTER: Appellate judges?

4 MR. SYKES: For appellate service only.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: That is right. Are there any
6 comments on that section the way it is drafted here?

7 MR. SYKES: All I can say as a Member of the 8 Committee of the State Bar, having some exposure to the 9 temper of the Bar, the limited provision with regard to 10 the Court of Appeals, or appellate judges, barely squeaked
11 through by a very narrowly divided vote, and I believe
12 that the sentiment of the Bar is overwhelmingly against 13 any further use of the retired judge.

14 JUDGE PROCTOR: It failed previously.

15 MR. SYKES: I think you might jeopardize the 16 Constitution by sticking on a controversial matter of that 17 kind.

18 JUDGE WARNKEN: Mr. Chairman, it is too late
19 for me to give my views on that. I have very definite
20 views, and I would be able to establish that the report
21 of your Committee, Mr. Sykes, is founded on facts that are
