

1 State Bar approved a couple of year ago, except the court
2 rather than the independent Commission?

3 THE CHAIRMAN: In principle.

4 MR. MARTINEAU: We don't actually set up the
5 Commission here. We put the power of removal in the court,
6 and then let the court adopt it.

7 JUDGE PROCTOR: By rule can adopt the Commis-
8 sion.

9 MR. RODONSKY: The power was never in the 10 Commission.

11 JUDGE WARREN: I wanted to inquire about that.
12 I see you say the Supreme Court of Appeals shall have 13 power to provide by rule for the implementation of this 14 section.

15 Personally I am highly in favor of the court
16 acting in all such matters. I think the idea of the 17 Commission is better. After all the problem is a court
18 problem. They ought to keep their own house in order.
19 I was just wondering whether the Supreme Court would have
20 power to create some kind of a commission and give it
21 power of contempt or contumacy or immunity, et cetera,
