

1 the judge without publicity.

2 JUDGE TUCKER: I wonder if this sentence in
3 this proposal would cover what Judge Warnken is saying,
4 the Supreme Court of Appeals shall have power to provide
5 by rules for the implementation of that section.

6 JUDGE WARNKEN: That is just the question I
7 raised.

8 MR. MARTINEAU: The question is whether that
9 goes far enough.

10 JUDGE PRENDERGAST: On the subject of removal
11 I have an embarrassing question. Will adoption of this 12 constitutional amendment remove all existing judges, or
13 will they continue in office until the end of this present
14 term and then their successors be chosen under Section 9?

15 MR. MARTINEAU: We are still debating that.

16 MR. ENEY: This will be covered in the schedule
17 attached to the Constitution.

18 JUDGE PRENDERGAST: This would be in fine print,
19 you mean?

20 MR. ENEY: What is thought of as being included
21 in the schedule are provisions of a temporary nature, so
