

1 you don't have to reprint them for the next hundred
2 years.

3 I would wonder if the judges would care to 4 comment on one phrase in this section, which is also in 5 the pending constitutional amendment, which gives the 6 right to remove for conduct which shall prejudice the 7 proper administration of justice.

8 JUDGE CARTER: Is it possible that will be 9 spelled out in the rules, or will it be otherwise defined?

10 THE CHAIRMAN: I think that was one of the 11 phrases I had in mind when I said perhaps this needs to 12 be gone over a little bit further. It seems rather a 13 broad statement to make. It could have all sorts of inter-14 pretation put on it. I think we can improve on that.

15 JUDGE CARTER: Yes. If you leave it in that 16 terminology, it seems to me it certainly is very broad 17 authority.

18 MR. MARTINEAU: Do you feel the word, interfere,
19 would be any better?

20 MR. REDDEN: Where does the phrase come from?

21 MR. MARTINEAU: The phrase is in the present