

1 THE CHAIRMAN: To serve at your pleasure.

2 JUDGE CARTER: Same as the Federal courts?

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

4 JUDGE CARTER: I think that is a very salutary
5 thing. Something ought to be done.

6 JUDGE JONES: I would like to ask, is there
7 any reason why you gentlemen discriminated against women
8 in the pensions?

9 THE CHAIRMAN: A typographical error.

10 JUDGE RASIN: On this compensation, Mr. Chair-
11 man, I would seriously like to raise a question about 12 constitutional provisions to provide that all judges of 13 the same tier shall receive the same salary, be paid by 14 the State as a constitutional provision. As you well know,
15 every year in the Legislature, there is a constant number
16 of bills to raise judges' salaries statewide, to supple-
17 ment and implement and discriminate and every other sort
18 of thing. Have you considered such a provision and why 19 isn't it in there?

20 THE CHAIRMAN: We have in mind that the sal-
21 aries will be uniform and that they will be paid^{by} the State
