

1 involved, I would agree that some refinement of subsection
2 (11) might be made. Perhaps the last sentence of (11)
3 might be amended as follows:

4 I simply asked our legal counsel to prepare this 5 because I am no lawyer, but the key to this very obviously 6 is in the last sentence in subparagraph (11) beginning
7 with "The estimates of the Legislative Department", et 8 cetera. You see it before you here: A Proposed Change
9 and Addition to Article III, Section 52, Subsection (11)
10 of the Constitution of Maryland. The last sentence of 11 Subsection (11) is amended to read as follows:

12 "The estimates for the Legislative Department 13 certified by the presiding officer of each House, of the 14 Judiciary, as provided by law, certified by the Comptroller 15 and for the public schools, as provided by law, shall be 16 transmitted to the governor, in such form and at such 17 times as he shall direct, and shall be included in the 18 Budget without revision; provided, however, that said
19 estimates may be examined and evaluated by the governor, or 20 his duly authorized representative, so as to determine 21 the accuracy of the data upon which said estimates are
