2 MR. RAYER: Or channel into private or parochial
3 education.

4 MR. BROOKS: Mr. Perkins, I believe, indicated
5 that this Section F, Article VIII, at the present time
6 wouldn't have any effect one way or another on that kind of 7 situation, whether it was in the Constitution or not.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Sensenbaugh seemed to say
9 that.

10 MR. BROOKS: Completely unrecommended.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

12 DR. JENKINS: What do you have to say about 13 that, Dick?

14 THE CHAIRMAN: I must say I don't follow the 15 argument that Mr. Rayer is making with respect to the 16 School Fund. I think that is about as archaic as anything
17 we have in the Constitution and how, after an appropriation
18 has been made by the General Assembly to the public school
19 system, the money could be diverted to parochial schools
20 escapes me. I don't see how it could possibly happen. I
21 am certainly willing to learn, and if you have got a
