

1 than Welfare or health or roads or forests and parks, con-
2 servation, all the other State services that exist, is 3 that right?

4 MR. RAVER: I would think it would be clear that 5 I am not in position to answer; if this were a case where,
6 for instance, a judge removes himself from the Bench, if 7 he is close to the situation, I am not in position to 8 decide whether these other services ought to be given some 9 kind of protection. Maybe they ought. I don't know.

10 MR. SACHS: That is the problem this Commission
11 has. They do have to make that judgment.

12 DR. JENKINS: Not to put words in Mr. Raver's
13 mouth at all, because he is competent to put his own words
14 there, but this is precisely the issue, whether education
15 is something special, something important, and the whole
16 history of our country and in the other States and in this 17 State is the effort to remove the schools from political 18 considerations. We do find -- I can't cite chapter and 19 verse, but our researcher could do it, that in many other 20 States, they do not have the controls that Maryland has 21 that the governor and the Legislature do enter into the
