

1 cut. Now it is true that the issue never spilled over so
2 that it was exposed as a rank conflict that had to be 3 resolved, but it just seems clear, as clear as crystal
4 to me, reading this transcript and having^{been}/there that day,
5 that these gentlemen were saying something that appears
6 to be very different than your quotations of Dr. Zimmerman
7 in your statement.

8 DR. JENKINS: Mr. Sachs, I am going to not have 9 the high opinion of you Dick has unless you say that these 10 changes can be made only with the agreement of the State
11 Superintendent. You are leaving, as I see it, you are 12 leaving the impression that the governor can say, This is 13 too much. You have got to cut it. He can say that, but 14 they don't have to cut it. On Page 209 Mr. Perkins says,
15 With their agreement.

16 MR. SACHS: No question about that.

17 DR. JENKINS: That is the key to the thing.

18 MR. RAVER: You recall I mentioned that, this 19 can be done without their consent. If they want consent,
20 that is between the two of them.

21 MR. SACHS: You are perfectly right in mention-
