

1 Let me add one thing. You fellows are very 2 kind. I know you have a lot more to do. Let me say this:
3 I think, Mr. Sachs, you are a good lawyer, you have cross-
4 examined me pretty well, and just to give some credence
5 to my testimony here, but let me say this: If you don't 6 even want to believe this, I have two suggestions for you.
7 One is that, as we have, I think, established the fact
8 and all you have to do is look at Article 77, and any 9 additions since 1964, and you will see the one point that 10 is in the testimony is dead wrong, and that is net taxable
11 income as a part of the formula. Now, if they made one 12 mistake, why couldn't they have made two in the testimony?

13 MR. SACHS: There is a well-known maxim that 14 suggests they could.

15 MR. RAVER: As to the second one, before you 16 take any action on this, call in Dr. Zimmerman. He might 17 be embarrassed to come because after all Dr. Sensenbaugh 18 is the Superintendent, but Dr. Zimmerman headed up the 19 division research twenty years ago. He became Assistant
20 Superintendent in Charge of Finance, and later the Deputy 21 Superintendent. If any man in the State of Maryland knows
