

1 MR. BOND: How about the junior college? We
2 have Dr. Bard on our Commission.

3 MR. RAVER: That is a different kind of a story.
4 Those of us in my organization are sort of disturbed
5 about the fact that they want to go out under separate board.
6 We think they should be kept fairly close to public schools.
7 I won't get into the argument why at this point. I don't
8 have any great feeling about the autonomy of the Univer-
9 sity of Maryland except in kind of a logical comparison
10 to the rest of higher education and to the public school
11 system. We do not ask the same kind of autonomy. We ask
12 for rather a security, freedom from political control of 13 funds.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: It would logically follow, would 15 it not, that other educational institutions should be
16 granted the same degree of security?

17 MR. RAVER: I think it would. I am surprised if 18 Dr. Bard hasn't already said, as Mr. Bond said, What about
19 the junior colleges or State colleges.

20 MR. BOND: He has.

21 MR. RAVER: I think that is perfectly plausible.
