

1 MR. BOND: I am also on the Executive Committee
2 of the Constitutional Commission, and we are concerned
3 about a so-called cabinet-type form of State government.
4 What is your belief as to having the State Superintendent
5 of Schools serve at the pleasure of the government? Do
6 you have any feeling on that at all, sir? John, don't you
7 think that is a pertinent question?

8 MR. BROOKS: Yes, sir.

9 MR. RAVER: I think this would also -- I have 10 to be careful how I choose my words, because I have said
11 that insofar as the recommendations under discussion,
12 removal of public education in 52 would be the most impor-
13 tant and most serious. I think I would be free to say 14 that such a proposal would be equally disturbing, because 15 to date it has no publicity given to this, except as 16 Mr. Power at this meeting -- Mr. Brooks, did you say this 17 was not pertinent out there in terms of what we hear here?

18 MR. BROOKS: What he said, yes, it is not per-19 tinent, but you can comment on it.

20 is
MR. RAVER: It/mighty close to it.

21 MR. BROOKS: I will say he did qualify his re-
