

1 know of no other way to put it, Mr. Case.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: I certainly congratulate you
3 for your candor. I think we certainly want to know.

4 MR. BOND: Can't we tell Mr. Raver certainly it
5 is not the intent of anybody on this Committee or Commis-
6 sion to in any way hinder the educational system in the 7 State of Maryland? It should be made abundantly clear to 8 him.

9 MR. RAVER: I am aware of that. If it weren't
10 for that machine, I would use a very strong expression.
11 When these recommendations come in, we think, What will
12 happen to the public schools of the State?

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Do you mean you really got that
14 feeling you got from the Report of the Constitutional
15 Convention?

16 MR. RAVER: Plus the meeting of the Seminar. I
17 can't disassociate this from what Mr. Brooks says, because 18 when Mr. Bond comes in, he says, We are considering that 19 very proposal. That makes me feel worse.

20 MR. BOND: We are considering a cabinet-type
21 government.
