

1 General Assembly for the following year. There is
2 flexibility in this whole thing.

3 MR. CASE: I think the issue is how the 4 commitment is to be met. Everybody recognizes the 5 fact that the commitment is there, but the question is 6 just how you meet it with dollars.

7 DR. SENSENBAUGH: Yes, but this was not the 8 intent in our last conversation with Mr. Donaho. He 9 had a different point of view and you are giving a 10 great deal of weight to that.

11 MR. CASE: No. Now, let me urge upon you
12 the fact that the Committee has not given any more
13 weight to one witness as against another. Mr. Donaho
14 has a very colorful way of expressing himself and I
15 think that --

16 DR. SENSENBAUGH: He did it in writing.

17 MR. CASE: And I think particularly in your 18 case, he has a vendetta, which may or may not be appro-
19 priate, but the Committee can weigh all of these things
20 and I hope in a judicious manner and come up with a 21 final result, but the issue is basically then the
