

1 the school fund in the State shall be inviolate. Our 2 research indicates that there is no school fund, as 3 such, and that the provision is superfluous.

4 DR. SENSENBAUGH: I notice it uses capital
5 letters, which indicates it must have been something
6 specific back in those days. I would hope that you 7 would retain this, but modify the terminology and 8 possibly say something like school funds or school aid
9 funds established by the State.

10 MRS. BOTHE: Do you think that would be 11 necessary if Section 52, or the equivalent section
12 there, is an actual procedural protection of the funds
13 rather than just a statement of purpose or intent?

14 DR. SENSENBAUGH: I think this has a little 15 different slant. This is a protection that the fund
16 is only going to be used for education, that you can-17 not transfer it to anything else. This is a little 18 different slant from this other thing we have been 19 talking about, and I would like to see that in there, 20 that funds established by law would be inviolate and 21 dedicated only for the purpose of education. Otherwise
