

1 different relationship to life than what welfare has.
2 You are dealing with the development of the mind and 3 the fact that our destiny is going to be determined in 4 a great measure by the strength of our brain power
5 collectively, I am speaking of, now, and I am delighted 6 that the Federal Government has finally begun to put 7 money where they used to talk about education and 8 beginning to recognize that maybe education is going 9 to help them solve some of the problems of the world,
10 and I think it is one of these areas that is just a 11 little too important to all of us to get involved into 12 cross currents of politics.

13 MRS. BOTHE: In other words, it is more
14 important than these other areas?

15 DR. SENSENBAUGH: I guess that is what I am
16 saying.

17 MR. CASE: That is what Mr. Raver said, in 18 just those words.

19 MR. SARTORIUS: One other point. We also 20 have the compulsory attendance law, and the whole setup
21 So, we have to take care of these people. They have to
