

1 year.

2 MRS. BOTHE: Mr. Case, I am confused because
3 I was under the impression Mr. Eney asked earlier
4 wouldn't it be possible to get rid of these reversions
5 and divert them during the year, and Mr. Perkins said
6 it would be, except it would come so late, it wouldn't 7 be practical.

8 MR. PERKINS: I didn't say that. He asked
9 me a direct question and --

10 MR. CASE: Nobody said that.

11 MRS. BOTHE: Is it theoretically possible,
12 if impractical, to take what is thought or known to be
13 a reversion and divert it during the budget year?

14 MR. CASE: No. That is the whole burden of 15 this discussion. It cannot be used for any other pur-
16 pose.

17 MR. ENEY: But only because the statute pre-
18 vents that kind of a budget amendment.

19 MR. CASE: Right.

20 MR. ENEY: But there is no constitutional
21 prohibition.
