

1 which was called the school fund. That is reflected 2 in our statutory provisions, but under modern budgets,
3 there is a general fund for which appropriations are 4 made and there are not two tax rates and there is not 5 a general fund and a school fund working in conjunction.
6 They are still all one general fund.

7 So, the use of the words school fund is now
8 an anachronism.

9 MRS. BOTHE: That was our statement.

10 MR. PERKINS: That was my statement, and if 11 you want to retain this, it has to be revised.

12 DR. SENSENBAUGH: I think the intent is 13 good.

14 MRS. FREEDLANDER: Mr. Chairman, if you say
15 all other departments are protected by statute, then 16 why couldn't the school be protected? If you can't 17 take reversions and play hanky-panky with them for all
18 departments, why --

19 MR. CASE: That is the question, Mrs.
20 Freedlander. I don't know. Maybe they ought to take -- 21 as Mrs. Bothe's committee suggested, scrap this whole
