

1 done on the local level. Principals are appointed on 2 the local level. The State Superintendent has nothing
3 to do with the principals in the twenty-four subdivi-
4 sions.

5 MR. HOFF: This can shift down.

6 DR. SENSENBAUGH: Principals do move about 7 from one system to another and you have a staff of 8 supervisors at the central office and we have quite a 9 sizable group of them and --

10 MR. ENEY: Are they merit system employees?

11 DR. SENSENBAUGH: No, they are not merit
12 system employees, but they are subject to approval --
13 the Superintendent recommends them and they receive 14 approval from the Board of Education.

15 MR. BOTHE: Of course, if there is no
16 thought of putting any of this in the Constitution, it
17 is outside of our purview and concern.

18 MR. ENEY: I was going to lead to the next
19 question, and that was, do you feel strongly enough 20 about it or concerned enough about it to change the 21 present lack of provision in the Constitution, or do
