

1 you feel more secure this way.

2 DR. SENSENBAUGH: Once you are one of his 3 staff members, you owe a support to him, although you
4 would certainly want to feel free to point out changes,
5 if you think they were wholesome and good and I think a
6 Governor would want that.

7 MRS. FREEDLANDER: Yes, but that is not 8 usually the path you take. I am talking about your 9 staff doesn't take that path usually. Your staff goes
10 to the legislature. For instance, if Mr. Sartorius
11 were here, he would go to the Baltimore delegation of 12 the legislature, and this is what he does when --

13 DR. SENSENBAUGH: If he wants local legis-
14 lation for his schools.

15 MRS. FREEDLANDER: Even if he wants it for 16 the State Board, he goes to the Baltimore delegation.
17 I mean, that is the procedure as I have watched it.

18 DR. SENSENBAUGH: I think you are quite 19 right.

20 MRS. BOTHE: I wonder if we could go back
21 briefly to Section 52 of Article 3, as to the real
