

1 necessity for having the budget nonamendable by the 2 executive. I wondered what would happen if there were 3 no such provision, as far as you can reasonably predict.

4 MRS. FREEDLANDER: What we were discussing
5 with Mr. Case, the section --

6 MRS. BOTHE: What we discussed with Dr.
7 Sensenbaugh, about the inviolability. This is about 8 the ability of the executive and the legislature to 9 amend the school budget.

10 DR. SENSENBAUGH: All right. What is the 11 question, again?

12 MRS. BOTHE: What would you expect to be 13 the consequences if that were removed from the Con-
14 stitution and the protection it affords?

15 DR. SENSENBAUGH: I still go back and say a 16 lot of people like Mr. Donaho was pointing out, and 17 this is the exact statement he gave and this is the 18 fear that I have, that there are a lot of people who 19 would say the same things. Now, I have here somewhere
20 his statement and this is what he said:

21 "The mandatory item for schools should be
