

1 was put in the Constitution, there must have been 2 considerable hanky-panky going on.

3 DR. SENSENBAUGH: Yes, and this brought it 4 in.

5 MRS. BOTHE: But, in trying to find out
6 exactly what was going on then, the best I have been 7 able to find are a lot of biographies of Dr. --

8 MRS. FREEDLANDER: Goodenauer.

9 MRS. BOTHE: -- Dr. Goodenauer who appar-
10 ently made some contributions in Maryland, but other 11 than his biographies and what a wonderful person he 12 was, I cannot seem to trace down exactly what was going 13 on at that time or might have happened since, had these 14 amendments not been placed in the Constitution. Does 15 anyone here know?

16 DR. SENSENBAUGH: The report was based on -- 17 well, in 1916, there were a lot of shenanigans going on

18 MRS. FREEDLANDER: May I direct a question
19 to either Dr. Sensenbaugh or Mr. Perkins and Dr. Earhart?
20 Statistics indicate that Maryland is getting increasing
21 funds from Federal grants. I know I have some figures
