

1 here on how much Baltimore City gets. We also know
2 Federal grants depend on the stability of the State
3 Department. Nowhere in your testimony have you men-
4 tioned the fact that we receive Federal funds to the 5 extent which your Department represents a link, a
6 Statewide stable link with the school systems.

7 DR. SENSENBAUGH: Over-all, we are receiving
8 about 12 per cent -- for the operation of schools, 12
9 per cent comes from the Federal Government.

10 MRS. FREEDLANDER: But the Federal Govern-
11 ment allocates it to Maryland because your Department
12 is what it is. You have not stated that.

13 DR. SENSENBAUGH: This is one of our prob-
14 lems which is now confronting many states. One reason 15 why the Federal Government in some cases is trying to 16 bypass the State Department is because they are afraid
17 of the strength the State Departments have to imple-
18 ment the programs.

19 MRS. FREEDLANDER: And you receive it
20 because of the kind of department Maryland has developed 21 and it is stable.
