

1 on it and this is just what has happened.

2 MR. ENEY: May I go back to Mrs. Bothe's
3 question and maybe ask Dr. Earhart to answer the ques-
4 tion. This goes back a little bit in the background
5 that we have been dealing with. Talking still about 6 this provision in subparagraph 11, Section 52, that 7 the estimates for the public schools as provided by 8 law shall be transmitted to the Governor and not be 9 changed; isn't the net effect of this provision merely 10 to leave it to the legislature rather than to the 11 Governor, the determination of what moneys shall be 12 appropriated for schools initially?

13 DR. EARHART: Well, the budget that we 14 present to the Budget Bureau which, in effect, becomes 15 the Governor's budget is presented to the legislature
16 and then, of course, is subject to the action --

17 MR. ENEY: That is not my question. With 18 respect to the other departments, the Governor exer-
19 cises his judgment, not thinking of the legislative or 20 the judiciary, and he initiates the budget and says
21 that this department or that department shall have this
