

1 again from the legislature. This is the only point
2 I'm making, that it is the legislature and this ties
3 in with the question I was directing to Dr. Sensenbaugh
4 on the over-all thing. Isn't this the real reason or 5 one of the real reasons why you feel that the State
6 Superintendent ought to be answerable to the Board and 7 not to the Governor, that it is a part of this whole
8 philosophy that education, the system of education,
9 the money for education is not an executive but a
10 legislative function? Isn't that the real reason?

11 DR. SENSENBAUGH: It ties up more closely
12 with the people than with a single head of the govern-
13 ment.

14 MR. BROOKS: This is why I would ask, if 15 that is the case, if we are not to the point where we 16 want to consider a fourth branch, because the legis-
17 lature is not in a position to administer this function,
18 if it be a legislative function, and therefore there
19 has got to be some more direct line of responsibility 20 recognized, with a full time administration, if it is 21 not to be the Governor who has full administrative
