

1 education built in such an independent article.

2 MR. PERKINS: I would be opposed to that.
3 Autonomy, even at the university, I am opposed to.
4 Curly Byrd and I were opposed to it and he is the one
5 who fought the hardest for it, but he said it's the 6 worst mistake he ever made. Nobody should have autonomy.

7 MR. BROOKS: You would want to take into
8 consideration your checks and balances, insofar as 9 what this fourth department of the government has as 10 against the other three, and it would seem to me then
11 a logical project to consider what checks and balances
12 are required for the protection of the people as a
13 whole.

14 MRS. BOTHE: Doctor, does any state recog-
15 nize education as a fourth branch of the government?

16 MR. BROOKS: Not that I know of.

17 MRS. BOTHE: By constitution?

18 DR. SENSENBAUGH: I suppose there are. In 19 fact, the more I hear Mr. Brooks talk, I suppose we 20 are operating that way. New York State is.

21 MR. BROOKS: Several states come close to
