

1 MR. HOFF: Why not?

2 MR. BROOKS: It could be handled like the
3 judiciary.

4 MR. HOFF: They are elected.

5 MR. ENEY: Yes, but they don't have to be.

6 MRS. BOTHE: And we are proposing that they
7 not be, in the political sense.

8 MR. ENEY: May I break in to say the record
9 is getting more of a debate from the Committee, but we
10 are not getting many answers from the guests.

11 DR. SENSENBAUGH: The more I hear Mr. Brooks
12 talk about it, it is almost what we are doing now and
13 if it simplifies the writing of the Constitution, I
14 would have no objection to writing it in as a fourth
15 area of the government, executive, judicial, legisla-
16 tive and education, because, in effect, we are just 17 about almost as independent as we can be, other than 18 the fact that we do not raise our own taxes.

19 MRS. BOTHE: I would like to hear from Mr.
20 Perkins who expressed himself so vehemently on the 21 subject.
