

1 they cannot do what the University does, they want
2 autonomy and the University has policies that we don't 3 have in the State. They have higher salary scales and 4 so forth, and it is hard to compete with them.

5 DR. SENSENBAUGH: Of course, there, I would 6 like to make a statement. That stimulates me, Bill, to 7 say something, too.

8 MR. PERKINS: We have a --

9 DR. SENSENBAUGH: We should have more
10 autonomy on that line.

11 MR. PERKINS: I can't argue this, but here
12 again, the responsibility definitely points to the 13 Governor and it should. He is elected and he is at 14 fault, whether it is Tawes or Sickles or whoever it
15 is. The responsibility can be laid right in his lap;
16 but you don't have to have an autonomy -- where do you
17 lay the fault at the University when something is 18 wrong? It's hard to pinpoint responsibility there.

19 MRS. BOTHE: Well, Dr. Elkins, when he 20 spoke to our Committee, kept emphasizing the fact that 21 the legislature does have the ultimate control in the
