

1 know, there are so many committee hearings being conducted
2 by this Commission that oftentimes hearings are held in 3 this nature, a transcript is made and the rest of our 4 Committee members will read and study whatever you have 5 to say. Don't feel bad because the others are not here.
6 Some are in Europe, some are taking vacations. Mr.
7 Hoff and I like yourself apparently are not able to 8 get away this summer. So here we are. We will be 9 delighted to hear you.

10 STATEMENT OF HYMAN A. PRESSMAN

11 MR. PRESSMAN: Mr. Case, Mr. Hoff, Mr. Sachs, 12 I appreciate sincerely the opportunity of being able to 13 come here to express my views. This is the real demo-
14 cratic way to proceed. I am very grateful to you for 15 inviting me.

16 In considering the provision in the Consti-
17 tution, it seems a simple enough statement as it is,
18 but unfortunately there hasn't been complete agreement
19 in what it means. No lottery grant shall ever hereafter
20 be authorized by the General Assembly.

21 There has not been agreement on whether this
