

1 by the public by inserting it, not to put in a provision
2 that doesn't belong there, and I ask you to delete it
3 completely and make no reference to it in the new 4 Constitution.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you, Mr. Pressman.
6 Senator Hoff?

7 MR. HOFF: No questions.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: I only have one or two,
9 Mr. Pressman. The first is this. I take it the main 10 thrust of your presentation here this afternoon is that 11 the prohibition against a lottery is just not of 12 Constitutional proportion, that it doesn't belong in the 13 Constitution because that kind of a controversial issue,
14 which is one that really should be decided by the repre-
15 sentatives of the people, ought to be left to their 16 decision.

17 MR. PRESSMAN: That is right.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: And you are really not arguing
19 the question of whether or not a lottery in and of itself
20 or vel non is a good idea or bad idea here today. We 21 know how you stand on it.
