

1 MR.PRESSMAN: This is only incidental for
2 the reason I wanted it made clear that in my opinion
3 there is a good, strong case against having such a provi-
4 sion at all, and where there is a debtable matter such as 5 that, it doesn't belong in the Constitution at all.
6 This is only incidental to the main thrust, as you have 7 stated.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Do you know whether or not 9 any other states have provisions of this kind in their 10 Constitution?

11 MR. PRESSMAN: I have no knowledge of such 12 provisions. I do know,I might say, that the State of 13 New York has a referendum coming up before the people
14 in November. I don't really know of any such provisions
15 in any other Constitution.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: I would suppose that if this 17 provision were taken out of the Constitution and the 18 Legislature should adopt an act which would authorize 19 a lottery, that somebody could petition that to referendum
20 too.

21 MR. PRESSMAN: They might very well do it.
