

1 about the lottery belongs there. Of course, I would
2 be pleased from the standpoint of my being for a 3 lottery to have a provision in the Constitution that 4 says the Legislature may authorize the lottery rather 5 than have this provision we have now. But this would 6 be inconsistent with my main argument. I say it doesn't 7 belong in the new Constitution.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: It wouldn't commend itself,
9 would it, to have a proliferation of county lotteries
10 and city lotteries and town lotteries?

11 MR. PRESSMAN: I don't think it would be 12 good at all. I think it would create a great deal of 13 confusion and wouldn't accomplish the purposes that a 14 state-operated lottery would accomplish. The one that 15 I propose would be a lottery operated by the state for 16 the benefit of the local subdivisions and the money would 17 be distributed to the local subdivisions in proportion
18 to the amount of tickets sold in those local subdivisions.
19 I feel that some of the local subdivisions would probably 20 want to have some formula which would be a little different 21 from that in that some of the outlying counties, which
