

1 THE CHAIRMAN: I would guess, Mr. Pressman
2 would agree with that.

3 MR. GRESHAM: I would think so.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Hoff?

5 MR. HOFF: No questions. Mr. Sachs?

6 MR. SACHS: Mr. Gresham, would you speak
7 to, if you care to, to the question that Mr. Case addressed
8 to Mr. Miles, namely, something like this. To be sure, 9 your arguments would appropriately go to a legislative 10 body considering whether or not to enact a state-wide
11 lottery, but would you tell us, if you will, what special
12 reasons, if any, there are for an anti-lottery provision
13 to be in the organic law of the state, the Constitution.
14 Do you have any special reasons that you want to offer?

15 MR. GRESHAM: I think here that as I have indicated in my 16 letter that the statistics, that the studies by the 17 Attorney General of the United States, by the leaders, 18 and so forth, indicate that for every dollar that is 19 raised in this area of gambling, whether it be lottery
20 or otherwise, at least $5 is spent in other areas like
21 police costs, court costs, et cetera. I think there
