

1 this doesn't necessarily mean that because a leader of 2 a certain denomination is opposed to it or says that 3 the church is opposed to it, I am sure he knows whereof 4 he speaks when he says the church is opposed to it, but 5 this does not mean all members of the denomination or 6 even the great majority of them are in sympathy with 7 this feeling.

8 In other words, I am not saying that the 9 sheep shall lead the shepherd. I think it is proper that 10 the shepherd shall lead the sheep. I merely wanted to 11 point out from my observations and my polls that I feel 12 convinced that the great majority of the people are 13 opposed to the prohibition of a lottery. They are in 14 favor of a state-operated lottery to help alleviate the 15 tax situation and that the insertion of such a provision
16 in the Constitution would only jeopardize the Constitution
17 as a whole.

18 I also would like to contest the observation
19 made by Bishop Doll in regard to purse-snatching and 20 robbery. I just can't see how the purse-snatching and 21 robbery can be compared to a lottery. No one forces
