

1 and to that end, I think we would like to get your views.
2 So, if you would like to carry on with reading the state-
3 ment or asking that it be included in the record and 4 then just discussing it in your own way, however you
5 want to work it, Louie, is perfectly all right with me.

6 MR. GOLDSTEIN: Right. Thank you, Mr. Case.
7 Mr. Ency and Members of the Committee and the reporters.
8 I appreciate the opportunity of appearing before your 9 Commission to express my views. I believe probably the 10 best way to approach it would be for me to read the 11 statement, and if you want, you can stop me at any part
12 of it, and I will very happy to answer any questions
13 either on the record or off the record, as the case may 14 be.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Fine. Although we have a
16 reporter in our good friend, Mr. Hunt, here today, this 17 is not to lend any formality to this particular meeting
18 with you, but really to have everything that you might 19 say made a part of the permanent record, and therefore 20 to give it the dignity that it is entitled to have and 21 share with other statements made by principal State
