

1 based on the information I have given you here this morn-
2 ing. It is a sound system and why change it because 3 somebody may have a theory that somebody else's may work
4 better?

5 I will be very happy to answer any questions up 6 to this point of the presentation that you all may have.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: The gentleman that came in 8 is Mr. Philip Sayre.

9 MR. GOLDSTEIN: I know, from Montgomery
10 Commission.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: He is a Member of our Commis-
12 sion. I didn't know that you knew him. He is a very 13 distinguished Member of our Commission.

14 MR. GOLDSTEIN: About the open door policy of 15 information, this 8-page report comprises all of the in-
16 formation that would normally be in the Comptroller's 17 Report; here is the Annual Report we have to put out to 18 the Members of the Legislature. It is a very voluminous
19 document of almost 175 pages. Here we have condensed 20 it into eight pages. We sent out 15,000 copies of these 21 to accountants, lawyers, insurance companies, everybody
