

1 certain way, they have the legal right to hold onto these
2 funds. While they may be in the Treasury, they are still
3 dedicated for this purpose, and they cannot be reverted.
4 In other cases, they will go into the Treasury, and what
5 is unexpended at the end of the year reverts to the gen-
6 eral funds of the State. It is a hodgepodge. It depends
7 on possibly inadvertent language in the statutes.

8 DR. JENKINS: Mr. Chairman, with your permis-
9 sion, I will have to leave here in about five minutes.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: You always have my permission
11 to come and go.

12 DR. JENKINS: I am a dedicated public servant,
13 and I have to work, you know. I would like to ask Mr.
14 Goldstein a question after you have finished this.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: You go ahead.

16 DR. JENKINS: Your opinion about the present
17 procedure for electing the Treasurer, should this be 18 changed or retained?

19 MR. GOLDSTEIN: Personally, I would like to see
20 the Treasurer elected by the people, if you want my honest
21 approach to the proposition, and write the qualifications
